W.P. No.22031 of 2006

O R D E R (per the Hon'ble Sri Justice D. Appa Rao)

The petitioner sought production of his grandson, detenue Kidambi Raghava by way of Writ of Habeas Corpus.

2) The petitioner averred that the detenu has been under his care and he got him educated. On 19.10.2006 when his grandson received phone call he went out side but did not turn up. On 20.10.2006 the petitioner gave a report to the police complaining missing of his grandson. Later he received a phone call from Mr.Kiran a roommate of detenu that the Task force police took the detenu into custody for no reason. Now he apprehends danger to the life of detenu and therefore he filed this Writ of Habeas Corpus for production of his grandson.

3) Respondents 4 and 5 filed separate counter affidavits inter alia stating that the detenu along with two others were apprehended by the Sub Inspector of Police, South Zone, Task Force, Hyderabad on 22.10.2006 in Cr.No.308 of 2006 for the offences under Sections 420, 468, 471, 473, 474 r/w 34 IPC of Chandrangutta Police Station. They were produced before the learned Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Nampally, Hyderabad, who in turn remanded the detenu and another to judicial custody. Pursuant to the order of remand detenu is now at Central Prison, Hyderabad. They prayed for dismissal of the writ petition.

4) Since the detenue is in judicial custody, nothing survives for adjudication in this writ petition.

5) The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed. No costs.
